

HISTORIC CHURCHES OF AMERICA

Trinity Church

Boston

Designed by Henry Hobson Richardson in 1872, Trinity Church is an engineering and architectural landmark. It is the first great Romanesque building in America and was built entirely without the use of structural steel. Twenty feet under the church is the water of the Back Bay.

POST CARD